Terra Cuisine Personal Chef Service Prepares Delicious Meals With a Side of Convenience

Greenville, SC – October 1, 2012 - There are two new Chefs in town ready to whisk away your mealtime worries if your hectic schedule forces you to go for fast food when you deserve fine food. Terra Cuisine Personal Chef Service is a time-saving way to bring you and your loved ones back to the table to enjoy wholesome, home cooked meals – all prepped, prepared, and portioned for you in your kitchen.

Co-founded with a mission to encourage people to eat healthier, freshly prepared meals, Terra Cuisine's Chef Terri and Chef Rachel bring 15 years of cooking experience and passion for great food to Greenville. "We believe that the freshest, natural ingredients help us create the best meals," says Chef Terri. "Our food philosophy is simple: we provide clean, natural, whole-foods that give both a sense of delight and adventure, while also keeping the health of the client as well as the health of the planet in mind. We look for local and organic options first but will always have a strict eye on quality no matter the client's store preference or priorities."

"We enjoy meeting our client's for the first time to introduce Terra Cuisine Personal Chef Service," states Chef Rachel. "They are always amazed that we handle so many aspects of the process, from a full assessment of dietary needs, custom menu planning, grocery shopping, cooking, labeling, to complete clean up of their kitchen. Terra Cuisine is a full-service business designed to allow people more time doing what they love. In turn, Chef Terri and I get to enjoy doing what we love - it's a win-win!"

Terra Cuisine offers many options to suit the most discerning palettes and culinary needs. Several meal preparation packages are available, including weekly, biweekly, monthly, or occasional packages, as well as small event services and gift certificates. Both Chef Terri & Chef Rachel are proud members of the American Personal & Private Chef Association (APPCA), are certified food-safe handlers by ServSafe®, and are fully insured. All Terra Cuisine Menus are planned seasonally to provide the freshest ingredients, and all menu items plus services are available to view at www.terracuisineonline.com
